‹ Previous

After all machines were failed-back to on-premise, replication from on-premise to AWS will begin automatically.

At this point, you can select all machines and click 'More->Delete Target instances' to delete all AWS replicas as they are no longer needed.

The last step of returning to normal operation is modifying the public DNS records to point back to the relevant source on-premise machines.

info@cloudendure.com · www.cloudendure.com · +1 (650) 360 0717